

Questions to Ask When Drafting Your Will: A Practical Guide for Effective Estate Planning

Part I: What Are My Directives/Desires Regarding My Funeral?

Choices | Partner 1

Last Name:

First Name:

01. What Are My Directives/Desires Regarding My Funeral?

What burial method do I prefer?	Burial	Cremation
Should I leave the choice to:	My loved ones	Liquidator
Do I want my body to be displayed?	Yes	No
Do I prefer a religious service or no ceremony?	Yes	No
Would I like my ashes to be placed in a biodegradable urn to become a tree?	Yes	No
Would I like my ashes to be scattered at sea?	Yes	No
Have I already made arrangements with a funeral home?	Yes	No
Have I already reserved a plot in a cemetery?	Yes	No
Do I want to leave a letter before my funeral?	Yes	No

Choices | Partner 2

Last Name:

First Name:

01. What Are My Directives/Desires Regarding My Funeral?

What burial method do I prefer?	Burial	Cremation
Should I leave the choice to:	My loved ones	Liquidator
Do I want my body to be displayed?	Yes	No
Do I prefer a religious service or no ceremony?	Yes	No
Would I like my ashes to be placed in a biodegradable urn to become a tree?	Yes	No
Would I like my ashes to be scattered at sea?	Yes	No
Have I already made arrangements with a funeral home?	Yes	No
Have I already reserved a plot in a cemetery?	Yes	No
Do I want to leave a letter before my funeral?	Yes	No

Part 2: Organ Donations

In a will or protection mandate, it is possible to indicate your choice to accept or refuse organ donation. This decision will then be recorded in the electronic organ donation registry of the Chamber of Notaries, making the information more easily accessible to doctors. It is also possible not to make a decision.

Partner 1:	Yes, I accept organ donation
	With donation to science                      Without donation to science
	No, I refuse organ donation
	I choose not to decide

Partner 2:	Yes, I accept organ donation
	With donation to science	Without donation to science
	No, I refuse organ donation
	I choose not to decide

Do I have any health issues?	Partner 1:		Partner 2:
	Yes	No	Yes	No
Details:

Part 3: Settling My Estate - The Liquidator

Choosing the liquidator(s)

Whom Do I Wish to Entrust with the Responsibility of Settling My Estate? This involves carrying out the necessary tasks for managing the estate, such as closing bank accounts, settling debts, selecting an accountant, and distributing shares to the heirs.

It is possible to appoint one or more liquidators. It is advisable to appoint liquidators who already have a trusting relationship with each other.

Liquidator Choices	Partner 1:	Partner 2:
Liquidator   1st Choice:	Name: Address:	Name: Address:
Liquidator   2nd Choice:	Name: Address:	Name: Address:
Should the liquidators act together, or is the second liquidator appointed as a replacement?

Powers of the Liquidator(s)

The powers of the liquidator will be explained by the notary during the will interview.

However, you can already decide whether you wish to compensate the liquidator or only reimburse their expenses related to their duties (expenses that will be reimbursed from the estate assets).

Would you like the liquidator to be entitled to reimbursement for:	Partner 1:		Partner 2:
	Yes	No	Yes	No
Their expenses:	Yes	No	Yes	No
Their expenses, travel costs, and lost wages:	Yes	No	Yes	No
Would you like the liquidator to have the right to reimbursement of:	Yes	No	Yes	No
Based on an amount of:
At what frequency:
Amount to be indexed:

Part 4: The Bequest of My Assets

What Are My Wishes Regarding the Distribution of My Assets?

Who do I wish to leave the rest of my assets to? These questions will be discussed in detail with the notary.

Do I wish to bequeath a specific asset or a sum of money to one or more people?

My Assets	Partner 1:		Partner 2:
	Yes	No	Yes	No
Am I the owner of a property?	Yes	No	Yes	No
Am I the owner of a business?	Yes	No	Oui	Non
Have I already created a trust?	Yes	No	Yes	No

Specific Bequests	Partner 1:	Partner 2:
Specific Bequests:	To whom: Which asset:	To whom: Which asset:
Options for Multiple Specific Bequests:	Yes                      No	Yes                      No
Bequest of my RRSP/TFSA/RESP in full to my partner:	Yes                      No	Yes                      No
Bequest of my RRSP only to my partner:	Yes                      No	Yes                      No
Bequest of my TFSA only to my partner:	Yes                      No	Yes                      No
Bequest of my RESP only to my partner:	Yes                      No	Yes                      No
Bequest of the right to use the principal residence to my partner:	Yes                      No	Yes                      No

Legs universels	Partner 1:	Partner 2:
To whom?	To whom: Which asset:	To whom: Which asset:
In what proportion?
In case of death or refusal of this person:
Goes to their own descendants?	Yes                      No	Yes                      No
Or goes to their co-heirs?	Yes                      No	Yes                      No
Or goes to their own descendants, and if not, to their co-heirs?	Yes                      No	Yes                      No
Or goes to another person, namely:

Part 5: And If I Leave Minor Children?

In the event of the death of both parents, different scenarios must be anticipated, and several trusted individuals should be chosen. The parents must indicate the same people.

It is important to inform the chosen individuals to ensure they will accept this responsibility.

Who Will Be in Charge of the Guardianship of My Children?	Partner 1:	Partner 2:
Name
Address
Replacement in case of death/refusal:

Who Will Be Responsible for Managing the Assets Bequeathed to My Minor Children? (This could be the guardians or other individuals)	Partner 1:	Partner 2:
Name
Address
Replacement in case of death/refusal:

At What Age Do I Wish My Minor Children to Receive Their Inheritance?	Client Response
Total at:	Years
In installments:	% at 18 years or at      Years % at 21 years or at      Years % at 25 years or at      Years